

Shareholder, Jim Trabilsy, Featured in New Jersey Bar Association Newsletter

01/15/25

We are proud to share that our Shareholder, Jim Trabilsy, was recently featured in a New Jersey Bar Association newsletter article. The piece highlights Jim's incredible journey as one of the longest-surviving dialysis patients in the country while maintaining a successful legal career for over four decades.

Jim's resilience and dedication to his practice, particularly in DWI law, have made him a respected figure not only at Wilentz, Goldman & Spitzer, P.A. but within the New Jersey legal community. Despite facing significant health challenges, he has continued to inspire colleagues and clients with his unwavering commitment, work ethic, and positive outlook.

To read the full article and learn more about his remarkable story, visit the New Jersey Bar Association website.

Attorney

- James E. Trabilsy

Practice

- Criminal Defense