Kamron A. Sharif is an associate in the Business and Commercial Litigation group at Wilentz, Goldman & Spitzer, P.A., focusing his practice on business litigation.

Prior to joining Wilentz, Kamron became an associate at a boutique litigation firm in West Orange, New Jersey after serving as a law clerk. He assisted attorneys in all aspects of civil and criminal litigation including document production, deposition preparation, motion practice, and brief writing. He defended a multi-year investigation and spearheaded trial preparations in United States v. Menendez.

Earlier in his career Kamron interned at the United States Attorney's Office in New Jersey where he worked primarily on the opioid task force and assisted prosecutors in high-profile investigations of opioid manufacturing entities. While working as a paralegal in New York, Kamron worked with a specialized team of ten attorneys handling government investigations, securities enforcement, white collar defense, broker-dealer regulatory matters, and financial litigation.

Kamron earned his law degree as well as his Health Law Concentration Certificate from Seton Hall Law School in 2021. He graduated from Fordham University with a B.A. in 2014.
